WHO WE ARE

Responsible for delivery, from start to finish.

EVOLUXER is an international consulting firm headquartered in Madrid. We lead and implement reform programmes for public institutions, financed by the European Union and multilateral development partners.

Our role goes beyond advice. We take responsibility for the programme as a whole: coordinating partners and teams, managing budgets and contracts, ensuring quality and reporting to the donor, from inception to final closure.

Over more than 15 years we have delivered more than 60 international projects in over 30 countries, as consortium leader, coordinator and partner.

OUR PURPOSE

To help public institutions deliver reforms that last, combining the right expertise with sound programme management, institutional understanding and practical implementation.

HOW WE MANAGE PROGRAMMES

One accountable team. The entire programme lifecycle.

Our model combines senior oversight, hands-on programme management and specialists who work alongside the institutions they support.

01 Mobilisation

We set up programme governance, mobilise the team and partners, agree working arrangements and prepare a focused kick-off.

02 Inception and alignment

We assess the institutional context, confirm priorities with the beneficiary and the donor, and translate objectives into a realistic delivery plan.

03 Implementation and control

Experts work with institutional counterparts while our programme managers control partners, contracts, logistics, budgets, quality and reporting.

04 Handover and closure

We deliver final outputs, transfer manuals and systems, build institutional ownership and support the donor through contract closure.

05 Continuity

We build on the relationships established with ministries, agencies and EU Delegations, many of which have worked with us on several programmes.

OUR STANDARD

A delivery culture built on accountability

Clear responsibilities, transparent management, regular progress reporting and early escalation of risks. We focus on outcomes institutions can use and sustain.
